Editor's comment

Dear Reader

Are you a criminal?

Horsewatch is primarily set up to offer advice regarding crime prevention and assist the equine community with other equine crime and community related matters. Crime takes different forms and it is not always the equine owner who is the victim!

How many of you habitually use a mobile phone whilst driving? Daily you can witness drivers using mobile phones whilst driving their vehicles. Using a mobile phone whilst driving is an offence. It is an act you readily enter into so there are no excuses. Please do not use a mobile phone whilst driving a vehicle. Don't believe you won't get caught, drivers are being prosecuted daily for this offence.

A sobering thought, that if you kill another person through your actions of using a mobile phone whilst driving a vehicle on a road, there is every likelihood that you will receive a prison sentence. Who will look after your horses? Below are some sobering facts from an article in the motoring section of the Saturday Telegraph, May 2009:

- The fixed penalty for using a hand-held mobile phone is £60 plus three points. If the police or the driver chooses to take a case to court rather than use a fixed penalty notice, the maximum fine is £1,000 or £2,500 for drivers of vans, lorries, buses and coaches.
- A Department for Transport endorsed research study says Where is strong experimental evidence that engaging in a mobile phone conversation impairs driversqability to react to potentially hazardous road situations. The impairment appears to be greater than that associated with listening to a radio+.
- Motorists can also be fined up to £2,500 and given from three to nine points in court if convicted of Careless and Inconsiderate Driving. This could include using a hand-held mobile phone but also actions such as eating, drinking, smoking or even fiddling with a radio or satellite navigation device while driving.
- If these actions led to a death on the road, the driver could be charged with Causing Death by Careless Driving, an offence carrying an unlimited fine and up to five years in prison.
- Police can opt to prosecute motorist caught using hand-held mobile phones under the last two charges, if they believe a fixed penalty of £60 does not reflect the seriousness of the offence.

You have been warned!

Cause for concern?

We do have an entry for Scotland relating to a foal slashing, please be aware that these incidents are very rare and those few that we do have in Hampshire are fully investigated by the police and other welfare organisations. Investigation usually reveals that the %Jashings+were either caused by the animal themselves or by other animals for example attacks on horses by deer and vermin are not uncommon. There are also cases where the injury is just unexplained and the investigating agencies will keep an open mind to the cause. Should owners have any concerns about unexplained injuries they should always contact the police so the matter is recorded and investigated.

Are you the 'Watch' in Horsewatch?

There are lots of reports coming in nationally of tack theft, trailer thefts and horse thefts. It is essential that horse owners and others connected with the equine business and leisure pursuits must pay more attention to what is going on within their areas locally and report all suspicious activity to the police and their Horsewatch representatives. As always, if you have any information which may lead to the arrest of offenders or the recovery of stolen property and you wish to provide this information anonymously phone CrimeStoppers 0800 555 111.

A cautionary tale?

The below was forwarded via e mail by a Horsewatch member who had received it from a friend. The advice has not been verified but the scenario has the element of authenticity about it! Better safe than sorry!!

Just last weekend on Friday night, we parked in a public parking area. As we drove away, I noticed a sticker on the rear window of the car. When I took it off after I got home, it was a receipt for petrol. Luckily my friend told me not to stop as it could be someone waiting for me to get out of the car. Then we received this email yesterday:

WARNING FROM POLICE

BEWARE OF PAPER ON THE BACK WINDOW OF YOUR VEHICLE--NEW WAY TO DO CAR JACKINGS (NOT A JOKE)'

You walk across the car parking , unlock your car and get inside. You start the engine and shift into reverse. When you look into the rearview mirror to back out of your parking space, you notice a piece of paper stuck to the middle of the rear window. So, you shift into neutral, unlock your doors, and jump out of your car to remove that paper (or whatever it is) that is obstructing your view. When you reach the back of your car, that is when the carjackers appear out of nowhere, jump into your car and take off. They practically mow you down as they speed off in your car. And guess what, ladies? I bet your purse is still in the car. So now the carjacker has your car, your home address, your money, and your keys. Your home and your whole identity are now compromised!

BEWARE OF THIS NEW SCHEME WHICH IS NOW BEING USED.

If you see a piece of paper stuck to your back window, just drive away. Remove the paper later. And be thankful that you read this e-mail. I hope you will forward this to friends and family, especially to women. A purse contains all kinds of personal information and identification documents, and you certainly do NOT want this to fall into the wrong hands.

Please pass this on.

In recent weeks/days there has been an increase number of equine crimes in the northern part of Hampshire, stretching from Andover over to Tadley and Basingstoke.
Most recently in these areas there have been thefts of trailers and carriages.
Please examine your yard security and look at how well protected your trailer(s) and other property is Thieves are not always committing crime at night, they are bold enough to steal during daylight hours.
During the evening of Friday 22nd May 2009 thieves stole a trailer and carriage from a location in Tadley. The thieves drove into a local travellers site with the stolen property. The owner of the stolen property witnessed the theft and followed the thieves. The owner confronted the men who were with her property, who then subjected her to violence with stones and bricks being thrown at her car! She managed to withdraw from the site, having sustained considerable damage to her car as well being in shock.

Don't put yourself in danger by unnecessary confrontation. Remember it is always best to observe, remember what you see and record it. Far better to do that and report it than put yourself in danger.

If you feel a situation demands it, i.e. "a crime in action" then dial 999. If you live on county borders it may be that your call goes to a neighbouring police force. For example, if you live in Yateley your call could go to Surrey Police Headquarters in Surrey.

Soõ õ always know your location, road name, noticeable/notable landmarks and if possible the postcode of your yard/homeõ ..all this will help police get to you.

If your call is not urgentõ then in Hampshire dial 0845 045 45 45. Put this number in your mobile phone memory. Equine members in other counties find out your police force telephone number. Most police forces have centralised numbers. To help you. go to www.nfed.co.uk/horsewatch look at the General Advice folder on the left hand side of the front page and you will see a sub folder marked UK Force Tel numbers. So there is no excuse for not recording your police force telephone number!

Apart from phoning in information, get to know who your local police/community support officer is. Most areas have Safer Neighbourhood teams (SNT). Get to know them. Ask your local police station who is on your local SNT team, get them to visit you.

Although this info refers to equine crimes in the north of Hampshireõ .. crime is prevalent all over the county/country so don't be complacent.

Sunday 31st May 2009 between 12.30 and about 12.45 3 men noticed walking on a footpath through a field of horses in the Blendworth area. One stopped to take photographs with a small camera. The descriptions are:

First Man: Older man with longish fly-about grey hair, dressed in a pale blue collared shirt with beigecoloured long trousers.

Second Man: Younger man - too far away to get idea of his age or exact hair colour, but not a boy. Wearing an orange and white horizontal striped t-shirt and dark shorts.

Third Man: Also younger man, wearing a faded dark blue t-shirt and dark shorts. He had the camera hanging diagonally across his body from his left shoulder.

They walked together and about a third of the way into the field the third man turned back and took a photograph of a pony who was to the left and behind them. He then walked on to join the other 2 who were a bit ahead of him. He took another photograph of a horse who was to his right. The first man held his hand out to another horse to the left of them and rubbed its face. A second horse came over to investigate. They then walked on.

BHS Gloucestershire trailer towing training for the novice and nervous

At Cheltenham Racecourse on Saturday 20 June 2009. Do you tow a horse trailer but still dread reversing? Did you pass your driving test after January 1997 and need to take ±he towing testo? Do you want to brush up on your towing skills for the safety of you and your horse? If so then this training is for you.

We are offering tuition with a fully qualified professional instructor who will help you to improve your trailer towing skills so that you can tow your horse confidently and safely.

For those people who need to take the towing test, the instructor will give you some idea of what is involved in the test, give you the opportunity to practice some of the manoeuvres and suggest a training programme to take you towards the test.

For those people who have either taken the towing test or have no legal requirement to hold this but just lack confidence, instruction will be based on helping you with any problems you might have, hitching up, reversing, safety issues etc.

Sessions will be based on two people per hour at a rate of £25 per person. Participants do not need to bring their own vehicle and trailer on the day. Places are limited so early application for this training is advised. For bookings and further details, please contact Denise Jones on (01453) 834628 or email denise@denisejones3.plus.com

RURAL WATCH MESSAGE 3.6.09

Three things to tell you about:

2 suspicious vehicles have been in the Broadway area in the last 24 hours. A white Transit index similar to S319 OCU seen acting suspiciously near to commercial premises which has garden machinery on site. It has also been sighted in Herefordshire in similar circumstances and on third occasion near to another commercial premise where a burglary had taken place.

Also, a white Transit index similar to R82 HFR, which was sighted following a quad bike which was subsequently identified as stolen. One arrest was made at the scene but the driver of the Transit was not located. It is suspected that the two males were working together to remove the bike to a separate location.

3 equines were found near to Springhill estate last night. A brown mare approximately 16.2hh, possibly thoroughbred. a 14.2hh palomino/dun pony and a brown Shetland with feet that need some attention. They were all wearing head collars but have no other identification.

Please contact me at once if you know who they may belong to. At this time no one has come forward to report them missing in Gloucestershire or West Mercia. Thanks, Gail.

Suspicious character

31/5/09 a white male was seen acting suspiciously in the Snitton Lane area of Ludlow. When challenged the male left the area on a bicycle in the direction of Ludlow. Please ring 0300 333 3000 to report any information or concerns you may have.

RURAL WATCH MESSAGE UPDATE 4.6.09

Dear all,

Just to let you know the three horses which had been found near to Springhill have now been claimed.

There are just a few other things to tell you about. As I am in contact with other forces it is obvious that there has been an increase in saddlery thefts nationwide, some of which have been very high value and appear to be an organised burglary rather than an opportunist crime. Please make sure you review your own security at regular intervals. Take index numbers of suspicious vehicles. Descriptions of suspicious persons you may have seen, age, build, significant features like tattoos, scars, jewellery etc. All of these may be listed on our police records somewhere which help us to identify suspects.

I know these messages get passed on to lots of your friends which is brilliant. Thanks for all of your help.

Gail.
