Stolen horses websites

We receive information about stolen horses and will do our best to report them to you. We are conscious of the fact that there are numerous internet sites where lost and stolen horses are posted. This is very commendable but the UK Horsewatch Alliance recognised web site to register all stolen equines and the first place to visit is the Stolen Horse Register . www.stolenhorseregister.com .

Using this site as the primary vehicle to report stolen equines ensures standardisation. All other sites offering a service to publicise stolen and lost horses are obviously good places to refer to. Horsewatch members will undoubtedly have their favourite sites to visit and regular searches and investigation are to be encouraged. As we all know the strength of Horsewatch is by members working for each other and through this participation success does happen.

Hoaxes

In a recent bulletin we included in good faith an entry about 'car-jacking' which has subsequently proven to be an email hoax. However, in the telling of the account there is no reason why the MOQas described could not actually take place so it is common sense to be conscious of your surroundings.

Welcome to Suffolk

As many will realise Suffolk launched its own Horsewatch recently. This is another Community and Police partnership. Go the UK Horsewatch Alliance website for further details in addition to what is posted below within the Suffolk section

Stolen Horses

It is important that all horse owners take good photographs of their horses from all angles, with winter and summers coats.

The stolen pony mentioned in the West Yorkshire section is a classic example where the only photographs available are obscured and very little of the pony can be seen.

Go to the West Yorkshire Section for further detail

Partridges stolen

A large number (about 8000) of French Red Leg partridges were stolen from South Hampshire. All are about 10 weeks old. If anybody is offered lots of partridge or has any suspicions re large amounts of feed being bought/moved or birds appearing in unusual number - please let me know.

Land security

Please consider the security of your land. There have been a number of trespass incidents over the last two days involving locks being cut from gates and fields entered for purposes of residence. It is possible that there will be further. If you see suspect vehicles who appear to be "scouting" the area please advise police via 101. A grey Subaru estate car has been seen driving around linked to this activity.

Suspicious photographers

Once again, I am receiving info of Asian/eastern European males taking photos of horses in rural areas. PLEASE log this info and report it if you see anything around your stables/fields. Saturday 6th June 2009. 3 Asian males in a dark Taxi on MOOR TOP, GUISELEY taking photos of their horses at 1900 hours.

We have subsequently been told of 2 other occasions where Asian males in a car have followed a young rider, then stopped her and asked if they can take their photograph.

You may recall last year we received a number of reports of eastern European/Asian males in fields and remote areas taking photographs of horses. When approached they became aggressive or said they were working undercover for the police.

This type of incident went quiet for while, however it appears to be picking up again.

It is not clear why these gentlemen are taking photographs of young ladies on horses but in this day and age we can never be too careful about our personal security and surroundings. Although the actions as reported of these males may be innocent the reasons for their behaviour is not clear. It is suggested that on the grounds of commonsense and public protection that if such incidents are witnessed they should be reported to the police and/or local Horsewatch coordinators in order that the incident can be looked into. People are reminded that wherever possible they should record such details as the individual descriptions, car reg numbers, make and model.

Further update:

PLEASE NOTE THE INFO BELOW - ANY INCIDENTS LIKE THIS NEED TO BE REPORTED ASAP.

Suffolk Horse Watch Bulletin May 2009

On 27th - 28th May at the Suffolk Show, Suffolk Police launched Horse Watch countywide with the aim of reducing rural and equine crime. People will be encouraged to join the scheme and help establish a spirit of co-operation in the equestrian community, passing on and receiving useful information that will assist with crime prevention. Horse Watch has been running in Mid Suffolk since September 2008 and Suffolk Police are now expanding the scheme across the county to provide a network of information and support to all horse owners and riders.

Membership to Suffolk Horse Watch is free and members will be invited to join the Police Direct messaging facility where they will receive up to date communications on both community and equestrian crimes, as well as other related information. Messages can be received via e-mail, text, voice recorded telephone message to a landline or all three.

Julie Dennis, of the Community Safety Unit says, "The aim of Horse Watch is to reduce the risk of equestrian related crime by members being aware of the security measures they can take to protect their property. The theft of property is not only devastating financially but can cause immense inconvenience to lose, for example, the saddle that fits your horse like a glove or the trailer you need to transport your horse to shows. As a horse owner I can appreciate the distress that must be experienced if your horse is stolen from its field. I would urge equestrians to look closely at their security and postcode all of their equipment which, in the first instance will make their property undesirable to steal and secondly make it easier to be identified should it be stolen and subsequently recovered.

Just like Neighbourhood Watch, much can be achieved through general awareness and a little effort from each individual. You don't have to own a horse to become involved; everybody is welcome, whether you just ride occasionally or own the local livery yard. The success of Horse Watch will be in the members and their commitment to sharing important information and helping to reduce the risk of equine crime

Anyone who is interested in joining or would like more information can log onto the Suffolk Police website. <http://www.suffolk.police.uk/Crime+Reduction/Watch+Schemes/Horse+Watch/> Or contact Julie Dennis, Community Safety Unit on 01473 613994 e-mail horsewatch@suffolk.pnn.police.uk

Three saddles stolen

A farm outbuilding near Hereford was burgled overnight Tues 9th . Weds 10th June 2009 and the following three saddles stolen:

Shires working hunter saddle, 18+, med/wide in brown. It is fairly new but has a long score on the seat from being scratched with a spur.

Pennwood Falcon 17 ½+GP in brown. Quite old, believed to be mark 1 Falcon.

Black Wintec. This has a Flairqair flocking fitted. Believed this will be very unusual as Flair is costly so its probably not normally fitted to synthetic saddles. The valve is located in gullet. It is possible this saddle will come to attention being sold by someone who doesn't really know what they are selling.

Please report any info about this stolen property to West Mercia police in Hereford. Tel 0300-333-3000 ext 4806. Crime number 22EB-41457L-09.
