

Editor's Welcome

I have good and bad news for you this weekend. The bad news is that there has been an attempted theft of a horse in Essex. The good news is that the horse was freeze-branded and the thieves left empty-handed. Unfortunately, the three horses stolen in Alveston weren't so lucky so please keep an eye out for them on your travels. See Avon and Somerset section.

You may notice in this edition of the bulletin an increase in suspicious sightings, activities and people. Whilst this may be a little perturbing, I think it is also indicative of an increased watchfulness by land and horse owners alike.

Many of us in recent years have suffered the criminal consequences as neighbourliness has declined and it's none of my business+spread. So I think it's very encouraging to see a reversal in this Eighties-attitude and feel quietly confident that we will gradually see a decline in equine crime as owners and riders continue to gain confidence in the power of co-operative crime prevention.

Suspicious male

Incident at livery yard Monxton near Andover, Hampshire on 11th May 2009

A dark skinned male was seen to take photographs with a camera of horses in their field. The male saw he was being observed and made his way to a dark blue estate car and drove off. Please bear in mind for the future...this happened in Hampshire but as you are reminded thieves will travel!

Suspicious incident

Saturday 9th May 2009 at Lee on Solent. Four horses were left wandering around between their two fields, paddocks and stable yard area as they usually do after their evening feeds late on Saturday afternoon, about 6:30pm. When the owners returned on Sunday morning (approx 9am) all the horses had been rounded into one small area of the field and a scaffold pole had been put up to stop them getting out. The horses were safe and well albeit a little confused as they couldn't get to their stable area as they would usually do! When the owners went to see one of their yard "neighbours" to let her know what had happened and ask if she'd seen anything/anyone. She said strange happenings had occurred ...namely some feed buckets had been taken out from where they usually were and two of the gates they always shut were open.

Please report any strange occurrences. -you may not think it important but through telling and networking horse owners can get a better idea of what is happening in their area and beyond. Always report to the police any strange incidents as these can be officially recorded and maybe linked.

Stolen Rice trailer and Roberts wagonette

Location: Tadley 21:35hrs on 22/05/09 Rms 44090220630

An old RICE trailer with front and rear loading, colour dark green with cream inside. Also stolen was a Roberts make wagonette, believed that the wagonette originated from Canada. Photographs are being obtained of similar wagonette and will appear alongside this entry on the Hampshire Horsewatch web site. The stolen wagonette was maroon in colour with light tan leather seats. There was gold scrolling on the paintwork. Also stolen was a central pole used to allow the wagonette to be drawn by 2 horses.

This was a determined effort to steal these items as the thieves had to cut away chains and gates. It is suspected the wagonette was placed inside the trailer to be removed. A dark coloured possibly blue ISUZU 4x4 was used in the theft.

Given the proximity of the location to Wiltshire and Thames Valley areas it is not unreasonable to suspect that the thieves could have come from anywhere in those areas or beyond. We keep saying it but thieves will travel to commit crime.

You could be next!!!! Consider all unknown visitors to your yard with caution. Get details of vehicles and occupants and report it to the police.

Suspicious activity on two occasions 12th and 15th May 2009. RMS 44090212928 at Hundred Acres, Wickham. On the 12th May the owner of a property returned home to find a white transit van parked outside her house and 2 men down the lane at the side of her house looking into fields at the rear of her house where she has 5 ponies and lot of machinery

The property owner asked the men what they were doing. One male claimed to be collecting scrap from a neighbouring property whilst the other said they wanted to do some ferreting. The property owner refused permission and the men left. Upon checking with their neighbour it was noted that they had had no knowledge of a scrap collection.

The property owner spoke to a neighbour at the weekend and was advised on the 15th a silver 4x4 was seen parked on her drive and there was a male and female looking at field at the rear of her house

Males on Tuesday incident described as one male aged 65 with grey hair, white male slim build. Jeans and jumper, English. Other male in 40 with dark black hair, stocky build. English, clothing unknown, they had a white Mercedes van with them. No details known of people on Friday's incident

We know it is difficult to remember to do certain things when events happen quickly and your mind is on other things but whenever a vehicle is involved try to get the registration number. Please report incidents immediately.

In Hampshire make sure you get the RMS number – that is the unique reference number to you and your incident

Suspicious incident RMS 44090206884 Between 1000 - 1200 14th May 2009 in the New Forest
A transit pickup van with ladder in the back followed horse rider at Rope Hill, Boldre, New Forest. There were 2 males in vehicle. They stopped the rider, asked questions about her horse and followed her back to her field in Rope Hill. The males are described as in their early twenties, 20 - 25, gypsy looking with short brown hair and wore tee shirts.

Attempted theft? Overnight of 14/15th May 2009 an incident occurred in the Rowlands Castle area of Hampshire, between Petersfield and Havant, close to the Sussex/Hampshire Border. The below is an extract from a Hampshire Horsewatch member who has reported an incident involving her horses. Please take extra vigilance with your horses and property. The message received was – .

Hi all,

Last night we had an incident on our yard in Forestside. Basically, we have found that person(s) were on a motorbike in one of the horse fields and it looks as if they were trying to round the m up!

We found numerous skid marks from the motorbike and the whole of the fencing was completely trashed with fence posts snapped in half. Also our electric fencing had been switched off at the mains. Apparently, earlier in the day there was a 'traveller' type poking their nose around in the stables and asking about grazing. She is reported to have been very rough in appearance, very bad teeth, short dark hair and in her early 30's. She was driving a dark graphite grey car that was quite beaten up.

Hi All

Hope you are all well.

With the long- range weather forecast stating that this is going to be a sizzling summer (1976 and all that – . No doubt ...hosepipe bans – stand pipes at the side of the road – shops running out of ice and ice cream – .) we will see!

Anyway previous summers have seen raves taking place (RAVES = lots of youths listening to very,very loud booming music (or noise) in fields or woods all night keeping the local residents and wildlife up)

Some months ago there was a rave about 1 mile from my home address - it was not good, despite 3 pillows on my head I still could hear it. Thankfully Sussex Police got there early and closed it down. So we all need to be on the lookout - Keep fields secure, report any suspicious activity, lots of cars turning up in out of the way rural locations.

Last year we stopped one happening in Miles Lane, Tandridge - stopped a group of youths with sound systems wandering into fields/woods - we also found lots of youths turning up at South Godstone railway station at 1130 at night!

So please keep them peeled over the next few months - Surrey Police will have extra patrols out -

An early call reporting any possible rave setting up normally means we (the Police) can get there and stop it - once it gets going it very difficult to stop due to the high numbers of people attending - so ring in early with any concerns

Many Thanks

Keep em peeled
