NORTHERN COUNTRY WATCH WEEKLY – 1 May 2013

Dear CW members, Partners and Colleagues.

I hope you find this week's circulation useful. My team have worked hard to ensure the information is current and accurate. Please read it in conjunction with information available on crimereports.co.uk. In this way you will be able to get updates on crime relevant to you.

Regards,

PS 2985 Russ Hodges.

GOOD NEWS STORIES

- A male was arrested for the theft of scrap in the Tadley area by a targeted patrol officer from Andover. Unfortunately, no further police action was taken as the owner of the scrap did not wish to pursue the matter.

- A male has been reported for the theft of fish in the Goodworth Clatford area by a targeted patrol officer from Andover.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

Summary of Reported Rural Crime

Most disturbingly, there have been a number of burglaries to rural dwellings over the last week. These are concentrated in the East Hampshire area, but there have also been two reported offences in the rural Basingstoke area. Mostly, jewellery and cash has been taken during these offences.

We have also seen a rise in burglaries to non dwelling premises, such as sheds, garages and out buildings. The items stolen at the majority of these incidents have been gardening type power tools. At one incident two quad bikes were stolen and at four locations nothing at all was taken. These offences have taken place mainly in the Rural Andover, Hart and Rushmoor area.

Theft of heating oil has dropped with only one reported incident North Hampshire this month.

Another twin axle trailer has been stolen from the Medstead area, and a decorative traditional Gypsy caravan has been stolen from a farm in the Headley area.

From across the border (Sussex)

War medals stolen in Milland Burglary

War medals from the First and Second World War were amongst items stolen from a house near Milland in West Sussex between Monday 22 April and the early evening on Wednesday 24 April.

Hampshire Horsewatch Bulletin
(Incorporating information from around the country)

Date 10 May 2013

A 1914-18 Star and a General Service medal, a 1939-45 General Service Medal and a 1956 Suez campaign medal were taken.

Detective Constable Jon Berisford said; "The medals have a great family sentimental value for the victims. Anyone with information about this burglary, or with knowledge of where the medals may be offered for sale, is asked to contact us on 101 quoting Serial 1378 of 24/04. You can also call independent charity Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111".

We are working hard to prevent and detect these crimes but we cannot do it without your help. Please remain vigilant. If you have any information regarding any crime or if you see any suspicious activity, please report it to the police on 101 or Information can be given anonymously by calling the Crimestoppers charity on 0800 555 111.

Unlicensed Music Events (Raves):

Early May Bank Holiday appeal for information

With the first May Bank Holiday almost upon us, Hampshire Constabulary is asking members of the public to be alert to any possible rave-related activity.

This could include:

- the removal of locks from secured access points
- vehicles, particularly panel vans or larger, driving off-road
- groups of vehicles congregating in rural areas
- convoys of vehicles
- loud music from remote woodland.

Please report any such activity on the Hampshire Constabulary non-emergency number,101, as soon as possible, quoting %Operation Enigma+

By receiving early warnings, Hampshire Constabulary has a much better chance of disrupting the rave and dispersing those responsible for its organisation.

If you have any information about illegal raves or those involved in their organisation, please contact Hampshire Constabulary via 101.

Information can be given anonymously by calling the Crimestoppers charity on 0800 555 111.

Country Crime Fighters Awards 2013

As the UK's leading rural insurer, NFU Mutual understands that many countryside communities face an on-going fight against crime, and regularly fight back with innovative solutions.

In 2012, the Country Crime Fighters Awards was launched to celebrate and reward the many resourceful, inventive, yet often unrecognised individuals and communities who take an active stance against such crime.

A fantastic response and the uncovering of some incredible people and schemes were revealed last year so in 2013 NFU wish to draw on these successes to make this year's awards bigger and better than ever.

NFU are inviting you to visit their website and tell in 300 words or less why someone you know deserves to be recognised for their impact on crime and win this accolade.

There are four award categories:

- Individual Crime Fighter
- Local Bobby
- Community Scheme or
- NFU Mutual Agent

Prizes include £1,000 for the Individual Crime Fighter and £1,000 to help fund local initiatives for the three remaining category winners.
